THE STATE CONVENTION.

The Republican State Central Committee met at Chicago yesterday, and after consultation with a large number of leading men of the party from different portions of the state decided to satisfied that it will, then, as advocates sall the state convention to meet at Springfield on Wednesday, the 19th day of May, for the purpose of selecting forty-two delegates to the National Convention, and nominating candidates for state officers. The basis of representation will be one delegate for every 408 be a stumbling block to some professed rotes cast for Hayes in 1876, and one friends of the cause of temperance. How for every fraction in excess of 200. This will make the number of delegates in the state convention 730-the same

The reports given by representatives frem all portions of the state were to the and trade in general. effect that while public sentiment was much divided with reference to the presidency, Republicans generally were willing and anxious to rally to the supauspicious omen-a sure augury of 1040415.

GEN. GRANT.

by acclamation at the Chicago Convention it is to be hoped his name will not be presented. While he is the Telegraph's first choice for the Presidency it feels that to make his name the subjest of an acrimonious contest in a convention which owes him only honor and respect would be a discredit to the party. Gen. Grant stands head and aboulders above every man named in connection with the Presidency, both in his abilities and his deserts. The office esa confer no additional honor upon him. In accepting a nomination he would be conferring a favor off the party, not receiving one from it. Be-nides this, he is not a candidate in the sense that he is seeking the office either by direct or indirect effort. Hence to tender him anything less than a unanimons nomination would be to dishonor him in the house of his friends, and for him to accept anything less would be to detract from his great name and fame.

However, by the time the Convention meets it can be easily ascertained whether a majority of the delegates are in favor of Gen. Grant. If they are, all other candidates should withdraw and the nomination be made by acclamation. If it is ascertained that a majority are opposed to his nomination without a contest, then his name should not be greented at all. But while personally preferring Gan'l

Grant we do not believe his nomination is necessary to the success of the party.

Either Blaine or Washburne could be reached by dark and scoret ways, to be proud of. But the Republicans do not form a party dependent upon leaders for guidance and direction. Its members have the intelligence and ability to guide themselves. They consider personal preference as to candidates a mere secondary matter. They are willing to abide by the will of the majority and will support the nominee of the Chicago Convention; elect him habits are worth anything in the argument then stand by to see that he is ment, the no license party certainly have "counted in."-Alton Telegraph.

(Communicated.1 LICENSE OR NO LICENSE-No. 2.

Is this the real question? Some would have us believe so. They take the position that, however damaging the use of intoxicating liquors may be to our community, we are powerless to prevent the sale of them, and that therefore it will be best to license certain parties to publicly sell them. With such persons the only question may be, license or no license.-With others the question is this: Shall we permit men for mere selfish purposes te continue-either publicly or clandes tinely—the making of drunkards, widows, orphans, paupers, murderers, and other similar characters in our midst? -Shall we permit the sale of intoxicating liquors to continually saddle us with curses, burdens, troubles and expenses, that fwe would not submit to for an hour should they come upon us from any other quarter? As a mere integral part of what we believe to be the question, we should soberly ask ourselves whether the prohibition of all license to sell intexicating drinks would advance us one stephowever small the step-towards furthering the cause of temperance? If we are of temperance, we are in duty bound to vote the anti-license ticket.

As a plea for the renewal of the license system, it is contended by some that more liquors are now sold and drank than when our licensed saloons were in full blast; and this matter really appears to are we to decide the question? In the absence of direct proof, we are to examine the premises in a common sense business like manner. We might go about it by calling to our aid what is universally known to be true in regard to husiness.

In the general commercial and business world the number of transactions or sales closely correspond with the real or supposed wants of communities. With the respectability and reliability of business port of the Chicago nominee, no matter firms. With their ability to administer who he might be. This is a most to the wants of customers, and facilities for doing business. And lastly, their lecations, with reference to handling goods and produce, and of being advantageously located for the convenience of customers. Here are four distinct items that may aid us in forming correct opinions. Unless Gen. Grant can be nominated Let us briefly look at them separately:

lat. The real or supposed wants of communities: Although thousands of pretty respectable men are ready to take a dram when easily obtained, how many of them deem it of sufficient importance as to drive them to seek it claudestinely in some out of the way disreputable place? Only a very small per cent.

2d. The respectability and reliability of firms doing business: Compare the intelligent, well-to-do, portly and companionable public salson-keeper with the sly, skulking, dodging, forbidding appearance of many who deal out intoxicating drinks in defiance of all law and the wishes of a large majority of the community in which they reside. Hundrads of persons who believe an occasional dram necessary, would do without it before they would buy it of such char-

2rd. The ability of firms to meet very want of customers and their facilities for doing business: Here, on the one side, we have the well-ordered saloon, with its long counter, its demijohns, bottles, barrels, decenters ; its liquers and beverages to suit every human taste or habit; its smoking room, warm stoves and easy chairs; often its rapturous music; its active and [expert mixers of various liquors, and, above all, its license and liberty to sell to Tom, Dick and Harry, without questioning .-On the other hand we have the little one demilohn of whisky; with one poor fellow on the lockout to closely scrutinize and interregate every applicant not theroughly known to the firm, and one other peeping, dodging fellow to do the sele dispensing of drinks. If facilities for doing business, and ability to accommodate and cater to different tastes and ment, the no license party certainly have a strong point here. 4th. Location, with reference to handling goods, and with reference to convenience of access by customers: The argument under this head has already heen partly anticipated; but we will coneider further the fact that licensed saloons are generally located on public thoroughfares; that their external appearance plainly indicates what is sold within: that they have a front door cast of access to all who are not ashamed to be publicly seen entering such places; new beverages. Contrast all this with Bessie must pardon the public if they the out of the way and cramped locali- appear incredulous. Any girl who ties where every one who enters for a could be "toted" around the house dram must do so with the greatest cantion, and wher each keg of beer or demijohn of whisky has to be smuggled in. Can anyone doubt for a moment how the issue will be with all this skulking, day Saints, doesn't go much on the old secreey, inconveniences and violation of maxim, "De Mortuis," etc. Of a man law on the one side, and the very oppo who died recently he said, at his funersite, in a magnificent degree, on the other? al, "He died a drunkard-and he will We might as well argue that if all our find a drunkard's grave. are far too easily satisfied in their investigations of this subject. One or two circumstances are sufficient to unsettle their minds with regard to fairly testing a non-license law. Overlooking the fact that it is an easy matter to "put up a job" on a community, and that there are always persons ready to do so for selfish purposes, the recent presence of a few drunken men and a drunken boy in our streets, has apparently satisfied them that anti-license will prove a failure. Others appear to have been thrown into doubts by seeing in the hands of one of these recent dispensers of drinks, a few hundred dollars which had been made within the space of four months. Four or five hundred dollars in four months! Far too large a sum to be made in that way; but, then, under the license system there were saloon men in Decatur who would take in over their counters that amount almost every week.

The truth is-and none know it better than the saloon men-that the total prohibition of all license to sell intoxicating liquors to be used as beverages, is one grand step in the cause of temperance, and that is the real reason such desperate opposition is being made to the antilicense ticket.

Some of the ways in which prohibition will favor the cause of temperance will be considered in another paper.

NEWS FROM PORSYTH.

Editors Republican.—Next week finishes our winter term of school. Our revival has begun and consider ible interest has already been awakened. One of our leading citizens, who by the way is rather bashful, has been re ceiving proposals so thick and fast since leap year began to think of renting property near the post office and hiring a private secretary to read them to bim and answer them.

Business in our little village is not very brisk, there is very little grain moving and but little other business. Some of our farmers have sown their spring wheat and others are preparing to do likewise.

Our little village was thrown into wild excitement Monday, or at least a part of it was. It appears from what we are able to learn that one of our merchants went to Decatur on Monday afternoon to replenish his stock of goods and also to buy a ring. Arriving in the city he left his lady friend to visit acquaintance, while he proceeded to select his stock of goods and deposit them in his buggy, which we suppose meant business before pleasure, for he certainly expected it would be a pleasure to purchase the ring or that it would give him great pleasure to place it upon her dainty little finger, or it might just be possible that he purchased the goods first to see if his cash would pan out; but after the necessary amount of delay the ring was purchased and he returned to his buggy in high spirits but imagine his surprise when he found that some rascal had stolen his goods He immediately summoned the city pelers and search was made for the missing goods but the thief had made good his escape; he estimates his lost at $20, but he stands it bravely for he knows that he has the sympathy of at CHRONICLER.

INSTRUCTS FOR GRANT.

Blaine Ahead in Indiana.

UTICA, N. Y. Feb. 25-The Republian state convention met at noon. After organization and appointment of committees a recess was taken. Upon reassembling the committee on Resolutions reported as follows: The Republicans of New York reaffirm the principles of the Republican party heretofore declared and faithfully acted upon; declare the safety of the Nation again imperiled by virulent and unlawful efforts of the Democratic party to overawe the subvert State Governments, as represented by the conduct of its leaders in Maine and several of the Southern States, thereby intending to secure control of the General Government by deeds of violence and fraud and in defiance of the lawfully constituted judicial authorities. In the presence of these grave and threatening dangers it is the duty of the Republican party to meet and prevent them, and to this end, mindful of their great responsibility in the coming Presidential contest, and of the fact that it must be determined by the Electoral vote of their state, hereby solemnly pledge to the Republicans of other states their ability to cast it for Ulysses S. Grant. We declare that in him we repose absolute trust for his honesty, his fidelity to duty, his serene judgment and solid intelligence, his varied experience, and for the uniform success that had ever attended his efforts in securing integrity perpetuity, grandeur and, the prosperity of our common country. For these reasons, and because we are satisfied that in him the Nation, North and South, decidedly greet a candidate deserving of its confidence, recommend his nomination for President. We also declare that the objection to a third Presidential term applies only to a third consecutive term, and is inapplicable to the re-election of Gen. Grant who is and has been a private citizen, absent from the country, destitute of all Presidential or official influence or patronage, and whose election must be a free choice of the people, unaided by those influences which alone give force, if any there be, to that objection.

Resolved, That the Republicans of New York believe the renomination of Ulysses S. Grant as a Presidential candidate of urgent importance, and the delegates are called upon and instructed to use their most earnest and united efforts to secure his nomination. Mr. Stoughton, on reading, stopped at the words "unaided by these influences," and a delegate shouted "Hurrah for Blaine," when long continued cheering followed.

Mr. Stoughton—I read for the instruction of the Convention and not for my own pleasure. At the close of the reading there was long-continued applause and hisses. Mr. Foster moved to amend that portion of the resolution pledging the State to Grant, by substituting the name of James G. Blaine. [Applause -long continued]. That portion of the resolution referring to the third

Mr. Conkling moved to table the motion. Carried. The Congressional Districts were then called upon to name the delegates to the Chicago Presidential Electors and members of the State Committee. Among the delegates are Edward Pierrepont, Edwin W. Stoughton, Thom-Tweed consists of eight children-four as Murphy, G. H. Sharpe and John F. Smyth.

> WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 .- The Democrats came near precipitating a political debate in the Senate to-day, over a proposition to pass a bill removing the statutory disqualifications against a man who entered the Con'ederate army at the age of 16 and served all through the war, so as to make him eligible for an appointment as Paymaster in the regular army. The bill was favorably reported from the Military Committee, and warmly advocated by Bayard Thurman, White and other Democrats. It was resisted by Logan, Edmunds Hoar and others on the Republican side. Mr. Logan elicited some applause by declaring that he did not think the men who had fought against the Union should be rewarded by appointments in the army in preference to those who fought to save it. He declared that he was opposed to allowing the men who fought in the Confederate army to enter the army now to be supported by the country. The discussion was exmistake in bringing this bill forward at Kenny

The W., St. L. & P. No. 1 is a large 5-inch hand-made Havana, made by experts, of the best Havana we have been able to find in the market. No 2 is a very fine hand-made 4½ inch Havana, and as a ten-cent or three for 25 cent (eight No. 2 has no superior. No 3 is the purest Havana hand-made 5 cent clear that we or any one else can produce for the price, and we gnarantee No. 3 equal in merit to two-thirds of the 10-cent clears in the market. We challenge any expert to cut to pieces No. 3 and examine himself as to the truth of what we have said not signed in the clear tipe of the clear, and contains more fine stock than une-tenths of the clears intended to be retuiled at 3 cents straight. Fine clears are better, richer, and more fragrant in smoke when fresh, than when old and dried out. We use no cheap, worthless stayoring extracts in our clears, but we depend alone for their merit upon the fine stock of which they are made and the workmanship of expert cigar makers. We respectfully solicia strial. Every cigar warranted a perfect smoker.

THE Quincy Whig has said of Jananschek, who is to appear at the opera house in Mary Stuart on next Monday

"Janauschek appeared in the Opera House, in "Mary Stuart" and "Macbeth." A large audience greated her, and she was the recipient of that warm enthusiasm to which her wonderful talents entitle her. Such grand performances by a woman have not been given by any one save Janauschek. No matter what the character, her power and majesty are siways displayed, and it is difficult to say in which to admire her most the wronged and entering queen, or the plotting and criminal indy. Last night the intensity of her acting had more than ordinary effect upon the audi-ence, which seemed to be in full sympathy with every line she uttered. In the sleep-walking scene especially the influence of her manner was so marked as to cause an apparent feeling of relief when it was ended: and in her interviews with Macbeth, those who witnessed it could not refrain from the heart-

Last night our renorter had | the pleas are of witnessing a very successful renearsal of the celebrated cantata, "Lost and Saved," which is to be presented with fine effect at the opera house to morrow night by the very best musical and amateur theatrical talent in the city. The rehearsal was conducted by Mr. W. R. Scruggs, the dramatic instructor, Prof. Lutz, musical director, and Mrs. Lutz, piano accompanist. The rehearsal went off very smoothly and was deeply affecting, the numerous tableaux being both beautiful and striking. There is a great deal of singing in the play, and the choruses are stronger and much better than ever before attempted in this city. The sad story of the fall and reformation of Harry Gray is set forth in the most affecting manner, and while Betsey Sharp (Mrs. Drew), and Mr. Jinks (Otto Curtis) are making love to each other and fighting for the right, and the old bummer. are doing their hest to undo the good that has been done, the other characters in the cast (and all are well taken) come prominently before the audience in song that cannot fail to please and entertain lt is a splendid play, and should be greet

JUDGE SMITH said yesterday that he had grown tired of dealing with violators of the liquor law as the old farmer did the boy who was up in his tree stealing apples. He had thrown about all the straw he had on hand, and now he was going to try pitching rocks. He said the liquor law is just as sacred as any other and if men don't want to be punished. and punished severely, too, they mus obey it, as they would that against murder or any other offense named in the statutes. And that's why he gave Rinehart and Farner 100 days each in the county jail, and ordered Sella, Weber and Rinehart to work out their respective fines at hard labor on the streets of the city. JOLLY EXCURSIONISTS.

Handred and Pifty-Two People Leave for the Other Rue of the L., D. & S. R. E. Early this Morning.

The much talked of cheap excursion train, over the Indianapolis, Decatur & Springfield road, from this city to the beautiful city of Indianapolis, left the union depot this morning soon after seven o'clock, as advertised. It was the first excursion of the season, and of course there was a good crowd. There were seven magnificent coaches, drawn by engine No. 7, W. Davis, engineer, with Conductor H. C. Oliver, a very pleasant and accommodating gentleman, in charge. The distance to Indianapolis is 152 miles. and there were just 152 tickets sold, at $2.00 each for the round trip, giving the excursionists the privilege of returning home as late as Saturday morning. The morning was bright, and the entire party was in royal good humor. Below we give a partial list of the pleasure seekers or board as the train started out: Decatur-George Nebinger, Capt A oodman, Mr and Mrs D J Block and

Uncle Tom To-Night. The management of Jay Rial's combination, which is to give our people an entirely original verson of the great moral drama, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the opera house to-night, say: "We can heartily commend "Uncle Tom's Cabin" as one of the very best moral entertainments that has ever been presented to this community. There is not a word, or gesture, or picture, or sentiment that is not pure, chaste, elevating and satisfying. It is a grand picture of moral beauty and vivid portrayal of virtue among the low- jail or work sentence. ly and oppressed. Saint or sinner cannot help to be improved by witnessing its performance and gazing on its scenes of bewildering splendor and enchantment." Admission only 25 and 25 cents. Take your family. Gome Up. This morning at 7 o'clock Sheriff Forstmyer and his special deputy, "Cal" Waggoner, of the county clerk's office, took the Illinois Central train for Joliet, with the following prisoners sentenced at the present term of court in charge:

Jacob Shimnoski, aged 27 years, convicted of robbery; 8 years at hard labor. If he behaves himself he will get out inside of six years.

Herman Dow, aged 20 years; pleaded guilty to advertising as an abortionist, three years. He is a marble cotter by trade, and if he obeys the prison rules, several months of his sentence will be hlotted out. Frank Becker, aged 12 years, will be taken to the Reform School at Pontiac, and will stay there two years, having pleaded guilty to larceny. The two men were rather sad, and Dow was disposed to drop a tear or two as he play to night. rode down to the depot in the St. Nick bus, chained hand and foot to the Polander. Young Becker seemed happy and resigned to the tnevitable.

We have never attempted to mislead the public by FLASH ADVERTISEMENTS, nor by giving fictitious values to goods on paper—a scheme resorted to by mountebanks to mislead the unwary. We do say, however, that outside a few articles which are sold alike almost everywhere, and in which there is but little or no profit, we can save consumers from 10 to 20 per cent.

We have yet on hand a Handsome Assortment of CLOAKS, DOLMANS and SHAWLS, that we are selling at GREAT BAR-GAINS. Also a Splendid Assortment of BLANKETS, FLANNELS, BLEACHED and BROWN MUSLINS, KENTUCKY JEANS, GINGHAMS, CHEVIOTS, TICKINGS, UNDERWEAR, HOSIE-RY, GLOVES, CORSETS, DRESS TRIMMINGS,

_INN & SCRUGGS. Decatur, Ill., Feb. 7, 1880-d&wif

We again beg to call the attention of purchasers to our Superior Assortment of Cloaks, and wish to remind those in want of the article that we have nothing but all wool, and a superior Union Beaver Cloak in stock now. We offer these elegant goods at actual cost, and we mean exactly what we say. We are not given to exaggerations, as any unprejudiced purchaser who has examined our stock and priced our goods in detail can testify. We do not sell Dry Goods, and do not find it necessary to make up in Hosiery, Corsets, Fancy Goods or Notions, the short profits on Calicoes and Domestics. There is hardly an article in the vast line that we carry that we do not sell lower than the same class or goods were ever bought at in this city before. While we don't claim to sell better goods than our competitors, we do claim that ALL OUR GOODS are fresh, new, and in good shape, and equal to the best in the market. Our assortment is never allowed to be broken for a single day, and we add new goods daily.

Overstocked as we are in Winter Goods of all kinds, we offer extra inducements at this time. and more especially in all kinds of Hosiery and Men's and Ladies' Underwear. If desired, we can convince buyers, in black and white, that we DO offer all winter or heavy weight goods at
